Logo and Attribution Guide | Updated October 2021

GULF OF MEXICO ALLIANCE LOGO USE

The Gulf of Mexico Alliance (GOMA) logo provides visual identity for our organization. Please follow the guidelines below to ensure proper use and representation of the Gulf of Mexico Alliance.

OFFICIAL LOGO

This is the current Gulf of Mexico Alliance logo. It should not be altered in any way and must be in high resolution (it should not look fuzzy or distorted). Information on how to obtain high-resolution graphic files is available at the end of this document.

PROPORTION

Enlarge and reduce the logo proportionally. Do not distort.

ATTRIBUTION AND OTHER INFORMATION

- An official Gulf of Mexico Alliance logo should appear on all publications and presentations for projects paid for with GOMA funds and projects where GOMA is a partner (unless otherwise noted).
- Photos for printed materials must be high resolution (at least 300 dpi or 1 megapixel [2048 x 1536]).
- Copyrighted material, including photos, graphics, and images from the internet, should not be used without permission.

- Awardees are responsible for ensuring that an acknowledgement of Gulf or Mexico Alliance support or partnership is made:
 - in any news media interviews (e.g. radio, television, and news magazines)
 - in any publication (including web pages) of any material based on or developed under your project, in the following terms:

“This project was funded wholly or in part by the Gulf of Mexico Alliance and [list other sources]. The contents of this document do not necessarily reflect the views and policies of the Gulf of Mexico Alliance or its partners.”

APPROVAL OF MATERIALS AND NOTIFICATION

The Gulf of Mexico Alliance reserves the right to review and approve materials prior to publication and release for projects paid for with GOMA funds. We request notification and a copy of press releases or published materials at the time of publication; copies should be included in any grantee’s required reports to GOMA.

SOCIAL MEDIA AND HASHTAGS

The Gulf of Mexico Alliance maintains accounts on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and LinkedIn. The Gulf of Mexico Alliance handle and hashtags should be used when referencing the Alliance on social media.
